

The One Hundredth Anniversary Of The Pewter Society

The Pewter Society celebrated its 100th Anniversary at Oriel College, Oxford, over the weekend of 22nd/23rd September this year. The programme at the Anniversary Conference included:

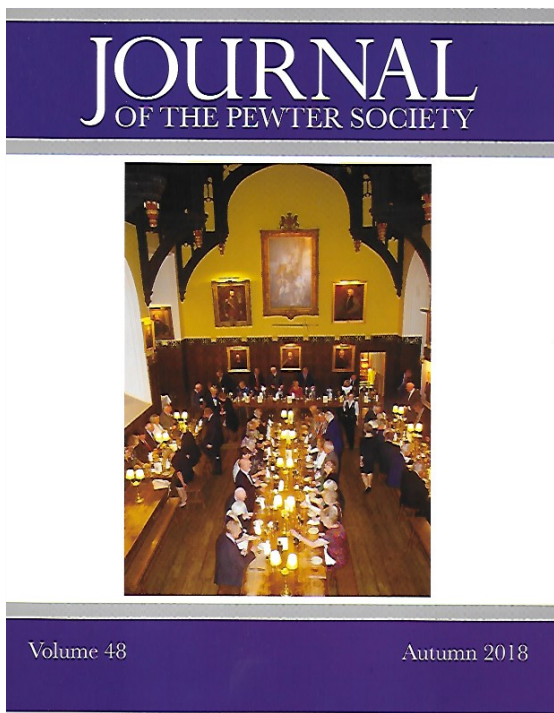

A speech of Welcome by the President of the Pewter Society, John Swindell;

A talk by John Douglas on: "The First 100 years";

A presentation by Jan Beekhuizen, the President of the Dutch Pewter Society, on: "NTV 25th Anniversary";

Steve Custons on the subject of the Launch of the updated Pewter Society Database;

Robert Weis, Organiser of the German Collectors of Antique Pewter, with an: "Introduction to understanding German Guild Pewter";

Philippe Boucard, an expert on French Pewter, on the subject of: "The Relationship between French and British Pewter";

A "Show and Tell" session for members' commemorative wares; and

Peter Wildash, a Past Master of the Worshipful Company of Pewterers, on "Tin - The Worshipful Company of Pewterers – its Relationship with the Pewter Society".

These sessions were followed by a pre-Dinner Reception, and then a fine Dinner in Oriel's magnificent Great Hall.

The next morning, many delegates visited the Ashmolean Museum.
